St. Petersburg, 11.—Pelice have seized the printing press and many copies of a revolutionary pamphlet on the "Redistribution of Land," and a great quantity of type and forged passports. Occupants of the house were arrested.

Chicago, 11.—A desperate duel was fought between two young women at Hancock, Va., last Saturday, one being armed with a pitchfork and the other with a ciub. Both were terribly damaged, and are not expected to survive their injuries. Cause—jealousy on account of a young man.

Business in the South

New York, 11 .- The Commercial Bul Ictim says: Business just now is unusually brisk at New Orleans, and the city is said to be crowded with visitors almost beyond precedent, the majority of whom beyond precedent, the majority of whom are mercharts and traders. This, too, notwithstanding the severity of the weather, which is more or less interfering with river commerce. At Helens, Ark., for instance, a lot of cotton is ready to be shipped. It is reported as almost inaccessible on account of the snow, which is at that noint more than twelve inches deep. The season, indeed, in all that part of the country seems to have been absolutely much more inclement than in this northern latitude, but without exception seems to have a simulated rather.

At short notice. ception seems to have stimulated rathe than retarded business.

Lesseps' Reception Lesseps' Reception

New York, II.—Arrangements for a reception and barquet for DeLesseps, by merchants and others here have been completed. The reception takes place at Delmonico's parlors on the 24th instant, Rev. Dr. Storrs presiding and delivering an address. The letter of invitation is written on parchment board elegantly and tastefully, and because of the eminence of the signers will be a remarkable album of autographs. It is oxpected that among the guests will be representatives of the nine United States of Colombia.
